Adoption Disclosure and Release

I _____, the undersigned, do hereby declare that I am aware:

1. Animals are different from human beings in the responses to human action.
2. The actions of animals are often unpredictable.
3. Animals should be closely supervised when they are with children.
4. An animal's behavior may change after it leaves the shelter and accustoms itself to a home or other different environment. HARK urges all adopters and foster care-givers to exercise caution when introducing the animal to new situations until the animal becomes fully adjusted to his or her new environment.
5. HARK makes no claims or representations as to the temperament, health, or mental disposition of any animal put up for adoption. For this reason HARK cannot accept any liability for animals in foster care, and/or adopted.

I have read and understand the Condition of Adoption and Adoption Disclosure and Release. If any violation of these conditions occur within six months after the adoption is final, HARK reserves the right of repossession of animal.

I hereby accept possession and responsibility for the animal identified in the Adoption Agreement and hereby release and discharge the Haines Animal Rescue Kennel forever from liability for any injury or damages to any person or property caused in the future by said animal, and from any causes of action, claims, suits or demands whatsoever that may arise as a result of such injury and damages.
